TWO BED TOWNHOUSE LAGOS CENTRE

This charming two bedroom traditional Algarvian house is situated inside the city walls of Lagos' historic centre. The property is accessed directly from the quiet single lane one-way street. There is ample parking nearby and the area is quiet enough for the opportunity to drop off groceries etc before parking up. The house is in superb condition and has been fully updated. This location is both enviable and sought after and has on it's doorstep a full range of amenities that include some of the towns best restaurants, cafés, and bars, and although close to the action of this lively seaside town it remains surprisingly peaceful. On entering the house there is an open plan lounge/dining/and fully equipped kitchen, there is also a cloakroom and storage off the kitchen. An attractive wooden staircase leads up to the first floor where there is a full shower/bathroom. Along the corridor is a double bedroom with two sets of full length double glazed doors with Juliet balconies giving this room plenty of natural light. On the second floor there is a second double bedroom with excellent built-in storage. Off this room is a lovely part-covered terrace with provisions made for outside dining, as well as plenty of room to relax and to take in the great views of the roof tops and old city walls. This wonderful “casa” would make an excellent rental investment/holiday home as it already has it’s rental license (alojamento local), and a very successful letting history. These traditional style properties do not come on the market often and when they do they are usually quickly snapped up. Viewing recommended.
