From this area the rest of the house is laid out on the ground floor, with a further four bedrooms and three bathrooms, a large fully fitted country kitchen with covered terraces leading out on to the rear gardens and pool area. There is a comfortable family lounge and a utility room also on this level.

The garage has an interior access and there are plenty of storage areas around the garden for wood and garden tools. There is a large barbecue area and roof terrace with views over the national park towards the Atlantic Ocean beyond.

The gardens are mature, with large grassed areas and local plants and trees, The pool is probably one of the largest around with diving board and the tennis court sits at the top of the garden. The property is fully walled, with driveway gate and pedestrian gate giving security and access.

An ideal property if you are looking for a large home or business, already having successful rental clientele.
