MARALIS-PRAIA DA LUZ

This unique building project is mixing traditional materials as local stones, concrete and light wood with straight contemporary lines bringing a new warm and cozy type of property.

Located in an exclusive development with large plots and magnificent views just steps away from the the sea, this contemporary turnkey project on three levels offers much more that you would expect.

The essence of the project is a long and bright main floor where more than ninety percent of the external walls have been replaced by glass surfaces without interfering on the thermal comfort, on the north side an external handcrafted stone wall raises from a long water basin keeping privacy and coolness during the hot summers, the east and south fully glassed sides enjoy some magnificent sea and coastal views.
